Reference: Cox Alomar 2012, Inc – Pre-primary Report

Dear Mr. Whyrick:

The Cox Alomar 2012, Inc. pre-primary report filed on March 6, 2012 listed a debt incurred of $3,660 owed to Christopher Sanchez Ortiz. While his services would be commonly described as "field operation's services," the report employed a literal translation from the term commonly used in Spanish which is "escolta." This resulted in the use of the unsuitable term "escort services" which carries a different connotation in the English language.

To avoid any misunderstandings, the committee has decided to amend the Schedule to reflect the correct nature of the services provided.

Cordially,

Jaime Sanabria
Treasurer
